

B HOMEWOOD/LARIMER

Population decline — about 80% since the 1960s — has plagued the neighborhoods, leaving street after street with aging, dilapidated houses and high crime. The city has acquired hundreds of properties in Homewood and Larimer the past decade but only turned one over to the land bank.

■ City-owned ■ City-owned with violations ■ City-owned with liens ■ City-owned with liens and violations

Percent of parcels that are city-owned:

